

Text Messaging and SMS Opt-In Policy

By providing us with your mobile number and opting in, you give Boost Finance permission to send you account-related text messages including, but not limited to, payment reminders, notifications in conjunction with the services you have requested, and links to our website or forms related to our services.

By providing us with your mobile number and opting in, you agree you have ownership rights or permission to use the number given to us.

The number of messages will vary by account.

Message and data rates may apply. Under no circumstances will Boost Finance be responsible for fees that your wireless carrier or other third parties may charge you for use of this service.

To opt out, text STOP to any text message we send you. A final opt-out confirmation message will be sent back to you. Alternately, you may email our Customer Care Team at CustomerService@BoostFinance.com to request that your account be opted out of text messaging.

You may also request support by texting HELP to any text message we send you.

You understand that you are not required to provide this consent as a condition of receiving services from us.

If your mobile device does not support MMS, any MMS messages sent may be delivered as SMS messages.

Wireless carriers are not liable for undelivered or delayed messages.

Unauthorized use of your mobile device may result in access to your personal information; please notify us immediately in such circumstances. Please notify us immediately if you no longer use the mobile number provided.

We may update this policy at any time. Any such updates will take effect immediately upon being posted to our website. Your continued agreement to receive text messages will indicate your acceptance of those changes. Any failure by Boost Finance to exercise or enforce any right or provision of this policy will not be deemed a waiver of such right or provision.

Text Messaging and SMS Privacy Policy

No mobile information will be shared with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes. All of the above categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will be shared with any third parties.
